TEMPLE
SHALOM
A Reform Congregation

Volume 16 Issue

President's Message

In his article, "On Leadership: Think Long," Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks stated his belief that "leadership must always be a team enterprise." As a small congregation, leadership at Temple Shalom is a team enterprise. Most of us who attend services regularly, either in-person or virtually, are part of the leadership as board members or committee chairs or both.

On Wednesday, May 18th, I attended URJ's Quarterly webinar for Temple Presidents (the first since we were accepted for membership). The topic was Thinking Intentionally—How Do We Gather? We were urged to rethink the traditional ways that congregations come together for meetings, programs and events. One of the questions posed was "Why do we need an Executive Board – does it just add another layer of meetings?"

My answer was absolutely – we need an executive board! Temple Shalom's Executive Board and their spouses have taken on, not only the responsibilities assigned to their positions, but also those of organizing programs, events, and services and caring for the building.

Highlighting a few of the activities (too many to name them all) that the members of the Executive Board have taken on the responsibility of implementing:

Thank you to Linda Disselkamp, Vice-President, for guiding us in writing two contracts for two different Rabbis, for being a master editor, and for co-chairing the Passover Seder. Thank you to her husband, Hank, for using his cell phone to Zoom a Friday night service when ours had an issue.

Thank you to Flo Pflaster, Secretary, for continuing to organize our Onegs, for serving as the food bank chairperson, and for editing the newsletter. Thank you to her husband, David, for publishing our newsletter.

Thank you to Michelle Foels, Treasurer, for maintaining our Facebook account and Google calendar, organizing Bingo, being our liaison to URJ, and leading Saturday morning services with her daughter, Shelley. Thank you, Shelley, for leading Saturday morning services. Thank you to Michelle's husband, Greg, for building our beautiful donation boxes and for creating a way that we can house and use our new Torah.

SHABBAT SERVICES

We meet at 4023 Belle Terre Blvd., Myrtle Beach, SC 29579.

Our Friday evening services begin at 7:30pm. Saturday at 10:30 AM. Members who cannot physically attend Friday night or scheduled Saturday services can view services via Zoom. Contact President@templeshalommyrtlebeach.org to request a Zoom invitation.

Thank you to Laurie Ward, Immediate Past Co-President, for co-chairing the Passover Seder and the Annual Congregational meeting and for creating wonderful event flyers.

Thank you to Cookie Brenner, Immediate Past Co-President, for being the kitchen committee, organizing our Purim and Yom Hashoah services, leading services on Friday nights, and co-chairing The Crisis Preparedness Committee with her husband, Gabe. Thank you to Gabe for co-chairing The Crisis Preparedness Committee and taking care of all things related to the building, especially for getting us heat this winter.

I would also like to thank my husband, Mike, for working with the Rabbi to prepare the High Holiday services, for leading Friday night services, and being available whenever he is needed.

Although I have only highlighted the Executive Board, thank you to all Board members for all that you have done and do as part of our "team enterprise". We have had to make some big decisions this year and you were always willing to meet at unscheduled times so that we could move forward.

Many congregants, who are not Board members, have chaired committees or been responsible for programs that support our congregation. Thank you for all of your hard work.

Our Annual Congregational Meeting is on Wednesday, June 15, 2022 at 6:00 PM. It is important that all congregants return their ballots. Then, join us for the meeting and a pizza supper. Your attendance, either in person or via Zoom, matters because we need a quorum (30% of membership) to hold the meeting. If you are physically unable to attend the meeting in person, please email me for the Zoom link.

Hope Sachwald,

Save the date: Annual Meeting (and pizza dinner)- Wednesday, June 15 at 6 P.M.

This meeting includes the formal election of Board members. Prior to this meeting, a formal notice will be emailed to each member, listing all of the candidates running for the Board. A proxy ballot, with instructions, will be included in the email as well as the agenda and other information for the meeting. It is important that you return your proxy so that we have a quorum. If you would prefer to vote by snail mail, please contact Cookie Brenner or Laurie Ward and a ballot will be mailed to you. You may also make nominations from the floor.

ONEG
NEWS

Thanks to those who have provided Onegs since our restart on April 1. We have all enjoyed the pleasure of snacking and chatting and socializing again! Unfortunately, there has been very little response to my emails and June 17 and 24 are still available. All of July except July 1, and all of August except August 26 and the rest of 2022 are still available.

Please step up and volunteer. And check the updated information in the April newsletter for the procedure. Any questions please contact me.

Thanks!

What's Happening at Temple Shalom – June 2022

SHABBAT SERVICES

With summer travel, some of our “regulars” will be missing at services. If you are in town and are able, we need you to attend services so we have a minyan.

We continue to need volunteers to lead the English readings with Mike and Cookie for Friday night services. Please contact President@templeshalommyrtlebeach.org to volunteer.

There will be one Saturday service on June 18 led by Rabbi David and Mary Weissman.

Shavuot—services and Yizkor on June 5 at 10:30 A.M. followed by a dairy kiddush.

Sefer Torah: Greg and Michelle Foels are continuing to work on accommodations for housing and for reading this larger, heavier Torah. The celebration will be scheduled for some time after July 4th.

Crisis Preparedness Committee – There was a problem with getting a System for Award Management (SAM) number to register for the grant prior to the deadline. This was a problem the Feds were having with changing systems, not a problem on our end. The committee has written a mission statement, listed and gotten bids on specific items of need, and started an official needs assessment with the police. In order to meet the requirements to apply next year, we need a manual. This will be very labor intensive. If you are able to assist with writing the manual, please contact Gabe or Cookie Brenner.

URJ – Michelle Foels is our liaison to URJ. She met with our assigned Ambassador via Zoom to start learning about accessing programs and networking. Hope Sachwald attended a URJ meeting for Temple Presidents. We are very excited to be a part of URJ and to start accessing their programs.

Please respond to the flier sent out from the Program/Events Committee. We have many wonderful choices of activities and want everyone's input.

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday, July 19 at 2:00. We are reading The Storied Life of AJ Fikry by Garbrielle Zevin.

Members: plan to attend the Annual Congregational Meeting on Wednesday 06/15 at 6 (includes pizza supper) and don't forget to return your ballots! It is important that you attend, either in person or via Zoom, because we need a quorum (30% of membership) to hold the meeting.

CELEBRATE SHAVUOT WITH TEMPLE SHALOM

DATE: Sunday, June 5

TIME: 10:30 A.M.

Our Shavuot service celebrates
the giving of the Torah,
reading the 10 Commandments, retelling the story of Ruth, and Yizkor.

To volunteer for the honor to read an English part during the service, please respond to this email by Sunday, May 29.

We will share a dairy Kiddush following services to symbolize the “land flowing with milk and honey” (Exodus 3:8)

Congregants may bring a dairy dish (homemade or store bought) to share with the rest of those attending.

Some ideas for what to bring: blintzes, dairy noodle kugel, cheese and crackers, bagel chips and flavored cream cheese, vegetables and cheese dip, vegetable lasagna, cheese chips or crackers or curls or popcorn, cheese cake, cream puffs, eclairs, ice cream cake...

Please respond to this email, by Sunday, May 29, with what you are planning to bring to share.

Thank you everyone for your support

As most of you know by now I have had a tumor removed recently. I am now in the process of getting therapy as follow-up to treating the cancer. Far too many of us have had or known friends and family who have followed this path. Like you, Flo and I have extended get well wishes and offered prayers for a speedy recovery. It isn't until one is on the receiving end of these acts of caring and concern that what is offered is understood.

Flo and I thank all who took the time to support us during this period.

David

Food Bank Collection

Each week I collect non-perishable food from generous Temple members to distribute to an organization that helps the home bound in need! The last several weeks, I have had little to no food to bring to the hungry. Please try to bring in one or two items each time you come to Temple. It's a mitzvah to give and your donations are very much appreciated. Please leave your non-perishable food items near the kitchen door and I'll retrieve the food each week. Thank you all so much!.
