A Letter from the President April 2024

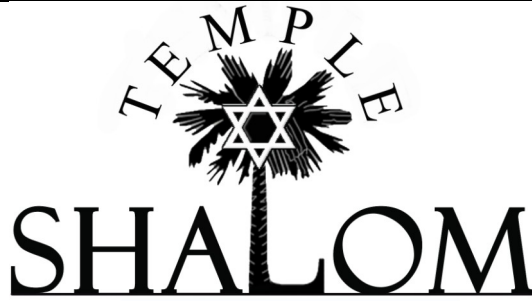

At the end of March, we celebrated Purim. Slovie Jungreis-Wolff writes in an article entitled "Purim Teaches Us to Respond to Anti-Semitism" (AISH.com): "As we contemplate the rising anti-Semitism that is spreading throughout the world, the hatred of the BDS movement and the threats to our land, we must take a moment to think. We have faced cruel enemies before. We have suffered through pogroms, inquisitions, crusades, Holocaust and murderous terror attacks. But we are still here, continuing to tell our unique story. Let us never give up hope. Instead, let us embrace the words of Queen Esther: "Go, gather all the Jews." Become one. Reach out to someone with kindness. Make a difference in the life of another, even if it's just through a good word or a bright smile. Say a prayer and stand up for the Jewish people."

"The Secure Community Network (SCN) is the official homeland security and safety initiative of the organized Jewish community in North America. Founded in 2004, under the auspices of The Jewish Federations of North America and the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, SCN serves as the central organization dedicated exclusively to the safety and security of the American Jewish community, working across 146 federations, 50 partner organizations, over 300 independent communities as well as with other partners in the public, private, non-profit and academic sectors.

Through its operations center and Duty Desk, SCN provides timely, credible threat and incident information to both law enforcement and community partners, serves as the community's formal liaison with federal law enforcement and coordinates closely with state and local law enforcement partners. SCN works with communities and partners across North America to develop and implement strategic frameworks that enhance safety and security of the Jewish people, developing best practice policies and procedures, undertaking threat and vulnerability assessments, coordinating training and education, offering consultation on safety and security matters and providing crisis management support during critical incidents. SCN's mission is to ensure the safety, security, and resiliency of the Jewish people." (SCN website: <https://www.securecommunitynetwork.org>)

In his monthly update, Michael Masters, National Director and CEO of SCN, stated: "Among a myriad of challenges, two threat pictures stand out. We have seen an unprecedented rise in swatting incidents in the last six months, intensifying in the last two months. In 2023, we recorded 998 incidents of swatting or false bomb threats, up from 115 in 2022, a staggering 768% leap. We are working with communities and law enforcement at every level to ensure they have the guidance and tools to keep the community safe amidst this growing threat. Our other chief concern is the rising threat of foreign terror, which we have seen as an outgrowth of the Hamas terrorist attacks on Israel. Hamas, Iranian proxies, and others have exhibited concerning signs of activity beyond the Middle East in Europe, and we are closely monitoring their activities and movements in partnership with federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies."

SHABBAT SERVICES

We meet at 4023 Belle Terre Blvd., Myrtle Beach, SC 29579.

Our Friday evening services begin at 7:30pm. Saturday at 10:30 AM. Members who cannot physically attend Friday night or scheduled Saturday services can view services via Zoom. Contact Templeshalommbpresident@gmail.com to request a Zoom invitation.

The following are some thoughts regarding the observance of Passover from a Reform Jewish perspective: WHY DO WE OBSERVE THE HOLIDAY? Passover celebrates the redemption of the Israelites from Egyptian slavery more than a 1,000 years ago. In celebrating the holiday, we should have feelings of gratitude that we live in a free country and we should have empathy for people living in countries which don't enjoy the freedoms which we take for granted. So while Passover is a holiday which is specific to Jews, it is a holiday which has a universal theme, FREEDOM. This is a theme which all peoples can find relevant to their lives.

HOW LONG IS THE HOLIDAY? The Torah prescribes Passover as a seven day holiday. However, before there were Hebrew religious calendars, a new Hebrew month didn't begin until two witnesses sighted a New Moon over Jerusalem. The information was then transmitted to Jewish communities outside of the Holy Land. Because sometimes the information about the appearance of a New Moon didn't reach these communities in a timely manner, the tradition developed to add an additional day on to the holiday outside of the Holy Land. In Israel, all Jews have always observed Passover for seven days. Hebrew religious calendars have been in existence for many years and we know exactly when the seven days of Passover occur. So the Reform movement observes the holiday for the biblically-prescribed seven days. However, outside of Israel, both the Orthodox and Conservative movements observe Passover for eight days.

WHAT FOODS ARE JEWS FORBIDDEN TO EAT DURING PASS-OVER? In their haste to leave Egypt, the Israelites could not wait for bread to rise, so they removed the grains from the oven before they had time to rise (leaven). The Talmud lists five grains – wheat, rye, barley, oats and spelt – that cannot be eaten during Passover if leavening has taken place in the baking process. To be kosher for Passover, these grains must be baked for less than eighteen minutes. So any products containing these grains which are purchased for use during Passover should be labeled “kosher for Passover.” A “kosher” label is not enough. The label must say “Kosher for Passover.” There is a split in Judaism regarding foods that are similar to the five grains listed above known as kitniyot (rice, corn, millet, legumes, dried beans, lentils, peas, green beans, soy beans, peanuts, sesame seeds, corn syrup and mustard). Because kitniyot can be confused with the five grains, about 800 years ago, rabbinic authorities governing the practices of Ashkenazi Jews rule that kitniyot are forbidden to be eaten during Passover. Sephardic rabbinic authorities never prohibited kitniyot during Passover and both Conservative and Reform rabbinic authorities have ruled that it’s okay to eat kitniyot during Passover. But Ashkenazic Orthodox rabbinic authorities forbid it. But it’s okay if some of us feel bound by tradition to avoid kitniyot during the holiday.

WHAT ABOUT THE SEDER? Every Jew is bound by the tradition to attend a Seder. Temple Shalom’s Community Seder will be held at 6:00 P.M. on Monday evening, April 22th. I hope you will attend this Seder with your temple family or a Seder in your home or someone else’s home.

PASSOVER SERVICES – Temple Shalom will have services at 10:30 A.M. on the seventh (last) day of Passover, April 29nd, which will include Yizkor memorial prayers for departed loved ones. I hope you will attend.

Mary and I wish you a chag sameach. A happy and healthy Passover.

Rabbi David Weissman

ONEG NEWS

For those of you who are unable to attend services on Friday nights you can now sponsor an Oneg. Contact me and we will choose an upcoming date. Please send a check in to the Temple address and write “Sponsor an Oneg” on the check ($18-$25) to cover the cost of sweets/ snacks and a challah. Someone will be assigned to shop, set up and organize the clean-up for you. If you have a specific date in mind for a special occasion and that date is available-it will be yours. If you want a specific item (such as a celebratory cake), let me know. Your sponsorship will, as always, be listed in the newsletter and the weekly emails. Sponsoring an Oneg is for those who are temporarily or permanently unable to attend services.

We do hope that you will make every effort to attend services.

We have had an overwhelming response to the request for Onegs. I am excited to tell you that the next available date is July 5! However, all the Fridays in July and most of August are still open, most of September and a few for the rest of the year. I am so proud of you all for stepping up.

A reminder that if you are providing an Oneg, you get the honor of lighting the Shabbat candles.

If you're unsure about how to do this, ask Rabbi David, Mike Sachwald or any one of us who are there!

A special thank you to our shoppers and set up (and clean up) committee: Hope, Irene, Dave and Cookie! If you are scheduled to provide an oneg and find that due to illness or other emergency you cannot do this, please notify Hope or Flo so alternate plans can be made.

I would like to thank SCN for the support and trainings they have provided to Temple Shalom. Our congregants have participated in both virtual and in-person trainings on antisemitism, cybersecurity, situational awareness and countering active threats. In preparation for applying for the Nonprofit Security Grant Program (NSGP), Temple Shalom's grant writing committee has attended SCN's 2023-2034 webinar series on Navigating the NSGP. I receive daily updates from SCN on regional and global antisemitic incidents and hate crimes and how they are being resolved. It is encouraging to read about how many perpetrators have been apprehended and prosecuted in the United States and around the world.

A huge thank you to Jason Roebuck, SCN Regional Security Advisor-South Carolina. Jason has provided in-person trainings, completed Temple Shalom's threat assessment and updated the assessment for the NSGP grant, and sent notice of trainings about webinars from partner agencies (FBI, ADL). Jason is the person that I contacted when Temple Shalom received antisemitic rants and threats from an individual after Rosh Hashanah 2023. He continues to keep me updated on the status of that individual. Recently, I received another suspicious call on the Temple phone. I contacted Jason and he started the process of identifying and gathering information on the individual. Before major events sponsored at Temple Shalom, I check with Jason to see if there is any noise about possible incidents in our area so we can determine the level of security needed for the event.

At the conclusion of his monthly update, Michael Masters writes: "Alongside our caution and calls for vigilance and preparation, it is important to remember that our resilience and our pride as a community make us uniquely Jewish. Amidst these rising threats, we cannot forget what makes us who we are. Leading openly Jewish lives is a powerful way to stand up to hate and violence. Meanwhile, SCN, in concert with our community and law enforcement partners, is hard at work keeping the community safe and secure." "Leading openly Jewish lives is a powerful way to stand up to hate and violence." Join Temple Shalom for Shabbat and holiday services. Participate in the United Against Hate Event on April 8, 2024, at 6 P.M. at Horry Georgetown Technical College Conference Center. Come to the Holocaust Memorial day event on Monday May 13 at 1:00 at the Chabad community center. Attend the Active Shooter Training presented by Jason Robard on May 22, 2024 at Temple Shalom. Be part of the solution!

Hope Sachwald, President

Temple Shalom Board Nominations

Temple Shalom is seeking volunteer leaders to join its dynamic Board of Directors. Nominations are formally open to all members in good standing. Board members will actively participate in the governance of the Temple and are expected to attend Board meetings, participate in one or more Board committees and represent the Board at Friday night and/or Saturday morning services. Each position carries a term of two years.

The Board is in need of a variety of skills and more diversity. We have been operating for a long time with the same few people who volunteer for every program and event that has been offered by the Temple. Without these few people, we would not be able to offer the type of programming we have had in the past. To ensure the future of Temple Shalom, it is time for other members to step up and serve.**

The Nominating Committee is now accepting names of those interested in running for a position on the Board. Please review the attached Nominations Notice outlining the responsibilities of each position.

If you are interested in being a candidate for Board service or have any questions, please contact Laurie Ward at laurie0153@gmail.com or Cookie Brenner at ebrenner1@gmail.com by April 22, 2024.

We certainly hope you will take an interest in running for a position on Temple Shalom's Board of Directors. Our future depends on all its members to participate.

Why should you serve on the Temple Shalom Board?

1. Serving on the Board offers you an opportunity to contribute to your community and change lives in a palpable way. It is meaningful to contribute to serving our organization/family and its mission.
2. By joining the Temple Board, you are giving back to your Jewish community. Your participation maximizes your impact and supports a cause whose mission aligns with your beliefs.
3. Serving on the Board is critical to Temple Shalom's direction and future to ensure its services can be delivered effectively and efficiently.
4. When you serve on the Board, you have the honor, challenge and responsibility of understanding how everything and everyone needs to work together for Temple Shalom to accomplish its goals. It is invigorating.
5. As a member of the Board, your voice will be heard - and it has impact. You'll hear the impactful voices of others, too!

To contribute to something meaningful is an important reason to volunteer for the Board, but perhaps this should be stated differently: To allow something meaningful to contribute to you.

It works both ways. At least in our experience it does!

Thank you for your continued support of Temple Shalom,

Laurie Ward and Cookie Brenner
