TEMPLE
SHALOM
A Reform Congregation

Volume 17 Issue 11

The month of May marks 19 years since Dave and I moved into our new house in North Carolina. Six months before that we were renting a condo while the house was being built. We knew no one and had not spent a lot of time in the area but fell in love with it and decided to leave NY where we had lived our entire life.

Arriving in mid-November was a huge culture shock. Everything was Christmas, everywhere. No sign of Chanukah anywhere. We went to Florida for a week to escape!

I grew up knowing I was Jewish because I got 8 gifts for Chanukah and we went to my Aunt and Uncle's house for bagels and lox on occasional weekends. I guess most of my schoolmates and friends were Jewish but it wasn't a topic of conversation. My family went to Temple for the occasional bar or bat mitzvah of cousins, a few weddings, and a Jewish cemetery when relatives died. Although Dave grew up in a more traditional home, once we got married, we followed the pattern of my childhood and raised our 2 kids the same way. Again, most of our friends and lots of our coworkers were non practicing Jews just like us.

When we moved down South, we were greeted by many asking us if we'd found a church yet -they'd be glad to take us to theirs. We avoided the question and avoided admitting we were Jewish. It was a very tough time.

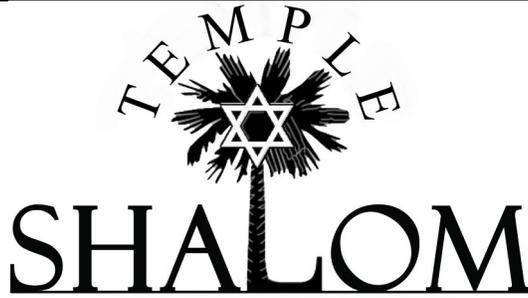

And then at the end of August, 2005 a small ad appeared in the newspaper stating that there was a reform temple forming in Myrtle Beach. I shocked myself by deciding to call and get information. Natalie Kramer answered the phone. I told her honestly that I had never been to services before, and I remember her answer: "You'll be perfect-why don't you come to the Hampton Inn on Friday night! "

The rest is history and the best decision we ever made was becoming part of this family. I even made my bat mitzvah with Rabbi David's excellent teaching, 50 years later than most. That event, shared with 5 others, was a highlight of my Temple life.

Through the years, being part of this extended family, we've experienced great happiness and close friendships and shared grief, sorrow and loss.

I am forever grateful for being part of the past, the present and the future of Temple Shalom.

SHABBAT SERVICES

We meet at 4023 Belle Terre Blvd., Myrtle Beach, SC 29579.

Our Friday evening services begin at 7:30pm. Saturday at 10:30 AM. Members who cannot physically attend Friday night or scheduled Saturday services can view services via Zoom. Contact Templeshalommbpresident@gmail.com to request a Zoom invitation.

There is a concept in the Jewish tradition known in Hebrew as Bal Tashchit, which forbids unnecessary destruction. There is a midrash, a fable, which says that when God created Adam, God led Adam around the Garden of Eden and said to Adam, "Behold my works! See how beautiful they are, how excellent! All that I have created, for your sake did I create it. See to it that you do not spoil and destroy my world; for if you do, there will be no one to repair it after you." (Ecclesiastes Rabbah 7:13).

And in the Torah, in Deuteronomy 20.19, the Israelites are commanded "When you besiege a city... you shall not destroy its fruit trees.... You eat of them, do not cut them down; for man's life depends on the trees of the field."

The principle of Bal Tashchit, not to destroy, is rooted in a statement in Psalm 24.1, "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." The earth belongs to God. We human beings are just tenants in the world that God created. And so the Torah states that every seventh year, the Sabbatical year, the land was to be given a rest, the land was to lie fallow. Nothing must be planted during that Sabbatical Year, as recognition that the land belongs to God.

Human beings have learned an awful lot about manipulating nature. We have airplanes which can fly above the earth. We have radios and television sets and computers which can transmit voices and visual images from one place to another. We can take fossil fuels out of the ground and transform them into energy. We have robots which can perform surgical procedures on sick people. Machines have been developed with artificial intelligence which can think faster and better than human beings.

And there is a story told about a scientist who looks up at the heavens and tells God that it's all over – humans can stand on their own. They don't need God anymore. The scientist says, "Look, God. You were good in your day, but we can do everything ourselves now. We don't need You anymore."

"Really? Says God. "You can make a human being from dust?" "Absolutely," says the scientist. "Let me see," says God. The scientist reaches down to scoop up some soil, but is interrupted. "Oh, no" says God. "You get your own dust."

Human beings have learned an awful lot about manipulating the world, about altering the natural environment for our benefit. But the risk of arrogance remains. Too often we treat the world not as a gift, but as a birthright. We think we can stretch the world to our whims and wishes without consequences.

We can turn a blind eye to the large number of catastrophic hurricanes and other natural disasters which have plagued us over recent years and the relationship between these natural disasters and the heating up of the planet caused by carbon emissions. We can turn a blind eye to the overwhelming consensus by scientists that human activity has contributed to the heating up of the planet -the heating up of the ocean waters which has caused these hurricanes to be so severe. But we do so at our own peril. We can ignore the proliferation of nuclear weapons. But we do so at our own peril. If the world is destroyed, there will be no one to repair it after us.

Rabbi David Weissman

ONEG NEWS

For those of you who are unable to attend services on Friday nights you can now sponsor an Oneg. Contact me and we will choose an upcoming date. Please send a check in to the Temple address and write "Sponsor an Oneg" on the check ($18-$25) to cover the cost of sweets/ snacks and a challah. Someone will be assigned to shop, set up and organize the clean-up for you. If you have a specific date in mind for a special occasion and that date is available-it will be yours. If you want a specific item (such as a celebratory cake), let me know. Your sponsorship will, as always, be listed in the newsletter and the weekly emails. Sponsoring an Oneg is for those who are temporarily or permanently unable to attend services. We do hope that you will make every effort to attend services.

We have had an overwhelming response to the request for Onegs. I am excited to tell you that the next available date is July 5! However, almost all the Fridays in July, August and September are available. Some dates are still open after September. I am so proud of you all for stepping up.

A reminder that if you are providing an Oneg, you get the honor of lighting the Shabbat candles. If you're unsure about how to do this, ask Rabbi David, Mike Sachwald or any one of us who are there!

A special thank you to our shoppers and set up (and clean up) committee: Hope, Irene, Dave and Cookie! If you are scheduled to provide an oneg and find that due to illness or other emergency you cannot do this, please notify Hope or Flo so alternate plans can be made.

Passover Seder 2024

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make Seder 2024 the success it was. It truly does take a village and Temple Shalom has an abundance of villagers!!!

No one person's job was less important than the next. Thank you to Tiffany for the beautiful flowers and food items. Mickie, the tzimmes was delicious! Mike & Lily Ann for the team matzo ball soup effort and Linda for the roasted broccoli. Karen Moldoff, the matzo kugel was an added bonus and a huge hit. Mary, the potatoes were another perfect accompaniment to our meal. To Chief chicken buyer, Irene & to Bob Dahlin chicken carver extraordinaire THANK YOU ALL !!!

Huge thanks to Stephen Post for helping me keep & stay on track as to who's coming. And to Dave for his keen sense of direction. The parking couldn't have gone as well without you. Also thank you to all who helped set up & clean up. It was a tremendous and exhausting undertaking but made easier due to your help and hard work.

Again, my heartfelt & sincere thanks to all of you.
