A Letter from the President January 2025

The Jewish community is facing the most unprecedented threat dynamic in our nation's history, with an almost 200% increase in law enforcement referrals and a 250% increase in college campus incident reports. FBI data reflects that in the last year, more hate crimes have been committed against Jewish people than any other ethnic group. Through our membership and connection with URJ (Union for Reform Judaism), Secure Community Network (SCN), and the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), Temple Shalom has had access to many webinars about antisemitism: what it is, how to discuss it, how to respond, and how to protect ourselves.

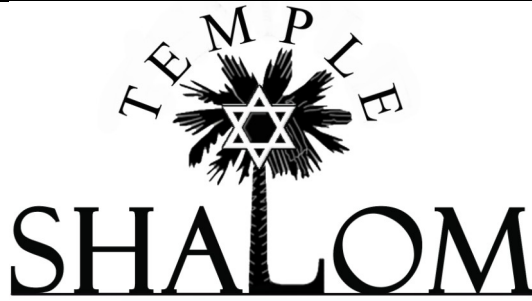

AND NOW -- Temple Shalom is proud to announce our participation in Kulanu, ADL's national synagogue engagement program. Kulanu—Hebrew for “all of us”—gives our congregation access to exclusive learning opportunities, tools and resources tapping ADL expertise so we can take action to combat hate and antisemitism.

Through ADL's Kulanu: Synagogues in Action Against Antisemitism, we are now part of a network of hundreds of congregations across the United States and Canada committed to the critical work of combatting antisemitism, hate and bias afflicting Jews and so many others targeted for their beliefs and identities.

ADL partners with us by offering our working group access to ADL experts through monthly webinars and workshops, as well as ADL content, resources and tools on an online portal.

ADL's Kulanu Program is national in scope, but local in focus, guiding us to forge formative relationships in our community through collaboration and bridge building between our synagogue and our neighbors.

SHABBAT SERVICES

We meet at 4023 Belle Terre Blvd., Myrtle Beach, SC 29579.

Our Friday evening services begin at 7:30pm. Saturday at 10:30 AM. Members who cannot physically attend Friday night or scheduled Saturday services can view services via Zoom. Contact Templeshalommbpresident@gmail.com to request a Zoom invitation.

Someone once said that a good teacher is not a person who takes simple ideas and makes them more difficult to understand, but a good teacher is a person who takes difficult ideas and makes them easier to understand. Well, there is a poem some of us may be familiar with entitled, "All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten" by Robert Fulghum. The following are things taught in kindergarten that can serve as guideposts for people throughout their entire lives and certainly during the coming New Year.

Share everything.

Play fair.

Don't hit people.

Put things back where you found them.

Clean up your own mess.

Don't take things that aren't yours.

Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody.

Wash your hands before you eat.

Warm cookies and cold milk make you feel good.

Live a balanced life – learn some and think some and draw and paint and sing and dance and play and work every day some.

Take a nap every afternoon.

When you go out in the world, watch out for traffic, hold hands and stick together.

Be aware of wonder. Remember the little seed in the Styrofoam cup:

The roots go down and the plant goes up and nobody really knows how or why, but we are all like that.

Goldfish and hamsters and white mice and even the little seed in the Styrofoam cup – they all die. So do we.

Some of us, during our younger years, attended summer camp. And there were many lessons we learned in summer camp which can guide people throughout their lives.

Be patient.

Help others.

New experiences help us grow.

Remember to be thankful.

It's okay to take a risk.

Friends are a treasure.

Be a good listener.

Drink lots of water.

Wear sunscreen.

Running, jumping and skipping are all good for you.

Play is a great way to learn.

Everyone, even grownups, make mistakes.

When you're scared, take a friend's hand and approach life together.

It's amazing what you can accomplish when you work as a team.

Mary and I wish you a happy and healthy New Year,

Rabbi David Weissman

ONEG NEWS

Happy and Healthy New Year from Dave and I to all of you!

We are quickly filling up dates in 2025!

Feb 14 is available.

March 28 through August 29 remain available. Most dates after September 5 are also available!

If you are homebound and would like to sponsor an Oneg, contact me. You can find information on how to do this in recent newsletters or just ask!

Remember if you are providing an Oneg you get the honor of lighting the Shabbat candles. If you aren't sure how, ask the Rabbi or any of the regular Friday attendees.

Tiffany Andrews is a member of Temple Shalom and President of the Myrtle Beach NAACP. They have agreed to partner with us in breaking down barriers of misunderstanding by joining with us for two programs. Our groups will read and discuss Uncomfortable Conversations with a Black Man by Emmanuel Acho and Uncomfortable Conversations with a Jew by Emmanuel Acho and Noa Tishby. Then, we will join together to participate in our own meaningful conversations.

How can you connect and help fight antisemitism?

Attend training sessions and invite your friends and neighbors to attend with you: learn how to be aware, protect yourself, and defuse a situation. On January 14, 2025, at 3 P.M., Jason Roebuck will be conducting a de-escalation training on the skills and techniques to defuse or reduce tension, hostility or conflict in a situation. We participated in the situational awareness trainings; this is the newest training. Please invite your friends as these situations can occur anywhere to anyone.

When you receive a request to send a letter to your representatives, respond: Demand that University Leaders Combat Antisemitism, Tell the Department of Education and Congress to Protect Jewish Students, Help Pass the Protecting Students on Campus Act, tell Congress to Stand Up for Democracy, Justice, and the Rule of Law.

Be informed. Watch ADL's Fight Against Antisemitism: From Crisis to Action to Impact <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jdRA0rSLKP8> and the 30th Anniversary ADL In Concert Against Hate <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AnllmHllrK8>

Join our Kulanu working group. If you would like to learn more about how to get involved, contact Hope at Templeshalommbpresident@gmail.com.

Urge Your School District to Fight Antisemitism. Antisemitism thrives where ignorance exists, but education can change that. ADL research shows that students exposed to antisemitism education demonstrate significantly lower antisemitic attitudes. Schools can create safer and more inclusive learning environments by teaching students about antisemitism, understanding its impact, and providing clear reporting systems. Join ADL in urging school districts to combat antisemitism. Make your voice heard—contact your school board today and help build a future rooted in knowledge, respect, and understanding. <https://action.adl.org/a/k-12-now?sourceid=1082074>

Let's make a difference in the fight against antisemitism and hate!

Thank You Notes

Thank you to Sheila Honer for organizing our DINE AND SCHMOOZE at Plantation Pancake

Thank you, Rabbi David for the presentation and discussion of "The Jewish Prayer Book—What's It All About??"

Thank you to Irene Klein for arranging lunch at Scrambled and for leading the discussion about The Goddess of Warsaw.

Thank you to Jamie Stanton for hosting Sandwiches and Snowflakes. Thank you to Jamie and Bill for hanging our 3-D snowflakes to decorate for Chanukah and winter.

Thank you to everyone who lit Chanukah candles together at the Temple for the 3rd night of Chanukah.

Thank you to Michelle Foels for leading us in Trivia and to Beth Boettigheimer and Flo Pflaster for providing latkes for our annual Chanukah party.

Thank you to Rabbi David for lighting the menorah and leading us in traditional Chanukah songs at Market Common.

Jessica Foreman sends out birthday and anniversary cards from Temple Shalom based on our roster. Sometimes the event is a one-time celebration--grandchildren, graduations, or marriages or an unpleasant event --illnesses, accidents, or death. Please e-mail Jessica if you know of someone in the Temple family, who has a celebration or could use a helping hand, at jessicafforman@gmail.com. Thank you, Jessica!

Secure Community Network has a new website: <https://www.securecommunitynetwork.org/>.

Some of the key features: Find Your Security Professional, Get Connected (sign-up to receive SCN's Daily Update), Request Support, Commit to Action, Threat Incident & Suspicious Activity Reporting Form (SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING).

SAVE THE DATE

Please join us for De-escalation Training on January 14, 2025, at 3 P.M. Jason Roebuck will be conducting this de-escalation training on the skills and techniques needed to defuse or reduce tension, hostility or conflict in a situation. We participated in the situational awareness trainings; this is the next step. Please invite your friends, these situations can occur anywhere (grocery store, restaurant, mall) to anyone.

The word "aliyah" literally translates to "going up" in Hebrew. Join Rabbi David on Sunday, January 19 at 10 AM for a complimentary breakfast followed by a training/refresher course in going up to the Torah to do an Aliyah. Being called up to the bimah to recite the blessing before and after a portion of the Torah is read is an honor reserved for members and special guests.

All congregational leaders and members are invited to join virtually on Sunday, January 26, from 12pm-5pm EST for an afternoon of learning. The URJ's Leadership Bootcamp is an online program featuring a keynote presentation and a wide selection of diverse breakout sessions focused on building foundational leadership skills. URJ is offering a tiered pricing model to reduce financial barriers to participation. The actual cost of this program is $118 per person. All tiers include the full event and programming. The tiers are as follows: Leader ($118), Sustainer ($72), and Ambassador ($54). If you are interested in this learning opportunity, please contact Hope at Templeshalommbpresident@gmail.org. Registration ends on January 22, 2025 12:00 PM.

Temple Shalom Book Club

In the short time that Sylvia Conant has been a member of our temple family she has contributed so much. She has given some wonderful sermons and enlightened us about the horrors of Kristalnacht. She had led some wonderful art classes. We learned how to use water colors and make collages. Sylvia is a true Renaissance woman and we will miss her as she takes her next journey in life.

ANNOUNCING KULANU

Temple Shalom is proud to announce our participation in Kulanu, ADL's national synagogue engagement program. Kulanu—Hebrew for “all of us”—gives our congregation access to exclusive learning opportunities, tools and resources tapping ADL expertise so we can take action to combat hate and antisemitism in our community.

ADL partners with us by offering our working group access to ADL experts through monthly webinars and workshops, as well as ADL content, resources, and tools on an online portal.

ADL's Kulanu Program is national in scope, but local in focus, guiding us to forge formative relationships in our community through collaboration and bridge building between our synagogue and our neighbors.

One of our initiatives is planning two (2) programs with the Myrtle Beach NAACP to read and discuss Uncomfortable Conversations with a Black Man by Emmanuel Acho and Uncomfortable Conversations with a Jew by Emmanuel Acho and Noa Tishby.

We look forward to making a difference in the fight against antisemitism and hate here at Temple Shalom and in Myrtle Beach.

DE-ESCALATION

De-escalation Training equips people with the knowledge, skills, and techniques to defuse or reduce tension, hostility,
 or conflict in a situation.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Explain the goal of de-escalation.
- Identify the initial indicators of escalating behaviors, both verbal and non-verbal.
- Demonstrate de-escalation best practices using the Behavioral Change Stairwell to include: active listening, empathizing, verbal diffusion, de-escalation phrases, non-confrontational body language, and facial expressions.
- Develop techniques for managing personal emotions in challenging situations to maintain composure and clear thinking.
- Describe how cultural and mental health sensitivity can help de-escalation efforts.

Another way we've committed to combating antisemitism and hate in the Lowcountry is through the creation of the first Joint Incident Reporting Tool, in partnership between the Jewish Federation, the ADL Southeast, and Secure Community Network. Now, when you witness an act of hate, you can report it so that all three organizations can collaboratively respond, investigate, and track patterns of similar incidents around the state.

The Secure Community Network (SCN), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, is the official homeland safety and security organization of the Jewish community in North America. Founded in 2004 under the auspices of The Jewish Federations of North America and the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, SCN serves as the central organization dedicated exclusively to the safety and security of the American Jewish community, working across 146 federations, 50 partner organizations, over 300 independent communities, and other partners in the public, private, nonprofit, and academic sectors. SCN is dedicated to ensuring that Jewish organizations, communities, life, and culture can not only exist safely and securely, but flourish. Learn more at securecommunitynetwork.org.
