NSGP Grant

The Federal Emergency Management Agency's Nonprofit Security Grant Program, has helped Jewish institutions across the country install security cameras, train staff, and add protective barriers, according to the nonprofit Secure Community Network, which gives security advice and monitors threats to Jewish communities nationwide. For the past three months, there has been a freeze on grants for synagogue protections as authorities and Jewish groups warn of rising antisemitism. We received an email from Stephanie Kitchens, SC Law Enforcement Division Office of Homeland Security, stating: "We are anticipating that FEMA will be lifting the grant holds within the next week and we will be able to begin submitting EHP's that have been pending." Temple Shalom cannot begin any project under the grant without these approvals that have been on hold. Fortunately, we are in the first year of our grant and have not laid out any money. There are congregations in the third and final year of their grants who have been very concerned about reimbursement for completed work. We also received this message from ADL: TAKE ACTION: Urge the White House to Protect the Nonprofit Security Grant Program (<https://action.adl.org/a/unfreeze-nsgp?sourceid=10820740>)

WZC Election

Only Israeli citizens get a vote in the Knesset, but all Jews can vote in the elections to the World Zionist Congress. The World Zionist Congress is our one chance to have a vote in the policy and budget decisions of the Jewish state. If you participate, you will help ensure that billions of dollars will continue to be allocated for progressive Judaism, for justice and democracy, and even we pray, peace efforts in Israel. Voting in this worldwide election continues through May 4, 2025!
If you choose to vote in the 2025 World Zionist Congress Election: (1) Go to <https://www.vote4reform.org/>. (2) Scroll down to "VOTE NOW AT ZIONIST ELECTION.ORG" and click the button. It will take you to <https://azm.castiron.votem.net/election/037548cb-4cbb-4a94-aa9a-8aef017d4ddf>. (3) Click on view slates; Vote Reform is #3. (4) Beneath the list of slates is an FAQ and below that the Register and Vote button. (5) It costs $5 to register. (6) You are then sent a pin, and you can vote.

Kulanu

Kulanu: Synagogues in Action Against Antisemitism is a self-directed program that empowers synagogue communities to fight against antisemitism and hate. Our committee has 3 members, and we would love to have more join us. Kulanu supports synagogues in organizing and activating

In this, my final article for Temple Shalom's bulletin, I'm going to review my fourteen years as the temple's rabbi.

Before coming to Temple Shalom, I had served for many years as a cantor at both Conservative and Reform congregations while working full-time first as a high school social studies teacher and then as an assistant principal in the New York City School System. I retired from the New York City School System in 1991. I then obtained rabbinic ordination and served as the rabbi of the Jewish Center of the Moriches (Conservative) in Long Island, New York (1988-2001) and the Village Reform Congregation of Pembroke Pines, Florida, (2001- 2008).

Today, most pulpit rabbis attend rabbinical school full-time and their salary as a pulpit rabbi provides them with their main source of income. My rabbinic career didn't follow this model. The occupation of full-time rabbi is of fairly modern origin. The rabbis of the Talmud had other occupations. The great rabbi Hillel was a woodchopper, Rabbi Shammai the Elder was a builder. The great medieval rabbinic scholar, Maimonides, was a physician. In no way do I compare myself to these great rabbinic scholars. But I have tried to model my behavior after them by not depending on my rabbi's salary for my main source of income, even when I served in rabbinic positions which required full-time involvement. Pirke Avot, the Sayings of the Fathers, warns against using Torah study as a shovel to unduly enrich oneself (Chapter 4,7). I have tried to follow this teaching.

I arrived at Temple Shalom in 2008. At the time, Temple Shalom had weekly Friday evening Shabbat services, High Holiday services and a Passover Seder. Services were held at the Trinity Episcopal Church on Kings Highway. We then moved into the Myrtle Beach Senior Center and instituted weekly Saturday morning services, a monthly adult education program and services on the other Jewish holidays throughout the year. Solo, I led services every Friday evening and then the following morning. We had an adult Bar/Bat Mitzvah class. I made hospital visits to congregants who were ill. Every week, following Saturday morning services, a group of us would go out to lunch. The temple moved from the Senior Center to our own rental facility in Conway and then, as a result of the generosity of a former member who left the temple a bequest in her will and the generosity of Ze'ev and Lily Ann Revitch, the temple was able to move into its own building on Belle Terre Boulevard.

In 2019, at the age of 84, I went on dialysis and decided it was time for me to throw in the towel. Mary and I moved to Delray Beach, Florida, where we lived for three years. The pandemic struck. I was named Rabbi Emeritus and via Zoom, as a volunteer, conducted a Passover Seder and one year's High Holiday services. After three years in Delray Beach, I got bored, and hearing that there might be an opening for a rabbi at Temple Shalom, I contacted Hope. The congregation had changed quite a bit during my three-year absence. The congregation had become much more self-sufficient. Members were now playing a much more active role in leading services. Mike, Cookie and Michelle were doing a lot of things I used to do. Hope wanted me to lead services only two Friday evenings and two Saturday mornings a month. This was fine with me. Not only was I on dialysis, but I was also on a walker and had a lot less energy than I used to have. I no longer had the energy to lead services solo, so I recruited Mary to help lead the English parts. I also was no longer able to make hospital visits. And so, I've lasted for almost three years as Temple Shalom's year round part-time rabbi. But I'm physically weak, on a walker with back problems and will be 90 in June. So, again, I'm retiring. This time for good.

But one thing I've noticed over the past three years. For a congregation of this small size, attendance at Friday evening services has been consistently good, whether Mary and I are leading services or congregants are leading.

So, I hope Temple Shalom can find a rabbi to replace me. But if you can't, the congregation can continue with members leading weekly Shabbat services. You will need to hire someone for the High Holidays and perhaps for other holidays and events throughout the year. People may want a rabbi for funerals, but there are options available.

My fourteen years at Temple Shalom have been among the most gratifying years of my life. I have always considered members of Temple Shalom to be part of my extended family. If I were healthy, I would continue as your rabbi for the rest of my life. I love you all.

Rabbi David Weissman

ONEG NEWS

Hope you are all enjoying this beautiful, but changeable Spring weather and here's hoping the yellow "snow" will be gone soon!

We have an immediate need for April 25 and if no one volunteers, we will have a sponsored Oneg from one of our generous homebound members.

The other available dates are all of May except May 16th, all of June except the 20th and all of July except the 18th. There are many other dates also open in 2025.

Remember if you are providing an Oneg, you get the honor of lighting the Shabbat candles. If you aren't sure how, ask any of the regular Friday attendees.

If you are homebound and would like to sponsor an Oneg, contact me.

You can ask me how to do this if you are unsure.

A Letter from the President April 2025 (contd)

through education, advocacy, and community engagement. We have been attending web gatherings on antisemitism and how to combat hate and how to create programs for the community. Research has found that the best way to fight antisemitism is on a person-to-person basis. On April 6, two congregants will be leading a mock Seder for a Church Bible Study group. On April 12, a group from another church will be joining our Seder. We are also planning our joint event with the Myrtle Beach NAACP to discuss Uncomfortable Conversations with a Black Man by Emmanuel Acho (here is a conversation with Matthew McConaugh: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CwiY4i8xWlc>) and Uncomfortable Conversations with a Jew by Emmanuel Acho and Noa Tishby. Please read these books and join this event.

Secure Community Network Launches Recurring Seasonal 10-Minute Weather Safety Webinar Series

The Secure Community Network (SCN), the official safety and security organization for the Jewish community in North America, has a recurring series of weather-related preparedness webinars aimed at helping Jewish institutions and community members proactively prepare for seasonal weather events. The first two webinars, "10-Minute Weather Safety Series: Spring Weather" and "10-Minute Weather Safety Series — Spring Weather: Hurricanes and Floods," provide critical information on recognizing and responding to severe weather events including tornadoes, thunderstorms, hurricanes, flash floods, and riverine flooding. The SCN urges all community institutions and members to participate in this educational initiative and enhance their preparedness for seasonal weather-related challenges. To access the webinar and register for the upcoming Q&A session, click here or visit SecureCommunityNetwork.Org.

Rabbinic Search

Our search is ongoing. Our search committee, consisting of the Executive Board and the Ritual Committee, has posted with the Central Conference of American Rabbis and the Cantorial Placement Site. We have posted on the site for full time/part time and also have access to the site for small congregations where we can check for Rabbis and Cantors looking for a monthly visit. We have interviewed two candidates so far and may have a follow-up after Passover.

New Initiatives

A few years ago, I asked the congregation to show up. Thank you for showing up! Thank you for attending services and events so that we always have a minyan for our services and a respectable turn out for our events. With Rabbi David leaving at the end of April, I am asking you to keep attending services and events while we search for a Rabbi or Cantor for Temple Shalom's next phase. We have also been discussing new activities for us to enjoy together: chair yoga, miniature golf, a trip to Charleston, music Bingo...if you want to suggest an activity or event, please do!

Saying Goodbye

Rabbi David and Mary's final services at Temple Shalom will be at the end of Passover: Friday April 18 and Saturday April 19 (service for the last day of Passover including Yizkor service). We so appreciate the time that Rabbi David and Mary have given to Temple Shalom. We have enjoyed having them lead services together: singing, adding new tunes and the banter that they have shared with us. We have learned from their sermons, adult-ed classes and as a mentor and teacher for those of us performing as service leaders. We thank them for their flexibility, humor, and willingness to participate in our many activities. At the end of April, Rabbi David and Mary will become Lifelong Associate Members of Temple Shalom. We wish them well in the next chapter in their lives and hope to see them at services via Zoom.

Hope Sachwald, President

mah jong marathon

Once again our mah jongg marathon was a rousing success . We had over 80 people in attendance. We sold out in less than 10 days. Everyone enjoyed playing and making new friends. The highlight as always was our delicious Chinese banquet. If you plan on attending our next marathon on Thursday June 26 be sure to sign up as soon as you get the notice. We thank Michelle for all her behind the scenes work. We couldn't run the marathon without her and our other invaluable workers, Flo, Felice, Beth, Linda, Ina and Irene. And, of course, Bill and Stephen who handled the heavy lifting. We have a wonderful team.
