TEMPLE SHALOM

A Reform Congregation

Volume 18 Issue 12

A Letter from the President June 2025

Marshall Lestz sends out a newsletter twice a week as part of the Rebuilder Project designed to encourage his Jewish readers to rebuild ourselves and our relationships. When I read the one that he sent on my birthday, I felt that it was meant specifically for me. Marshall tells the story of a WAZE app that was glitching and stuck in the past. The man talking to him told the WAZE that he needed to update saying: "Of course! If you don't keep updating, you'll never be able to find where you need to go." Marshall goes on to write: "One thing's for sure, if we're going to find our "destination" in life—you know, our mission and purpose for being here—we can't get stuck living in the past."

On June 20th, Temple Shalom will be celebrating our 20 years as a congregation. There will be many opportunities to look back that night and appreciate the people and hard work that have gone into these last 20 years.

Then, we are going to move forward and focus on the next 20 years! We have some updates coming in the next few months. We are hoping to have a new part-time Rabbi by August. We should be able to start the work under the security grant shortly. Dues are increasing for the 2025-26 fiscal year by $50 per person for the first time in many years. The cost of Temple sponsored meals has been changed due to higher food costs: lunch/brunch-$20 for members and $27 for guests and dinner - $25 for members and $32 for guests. Temple Shalom's first Budget committee was formed. We are starting chair yoga for both in-person and zoom participants. More new activities are being planned.

Updating and changing are difficult. What can you do to help? Be a part of our Temple Shalom family. Lead services in English or Hebrew, participate in services and activities, share a new activity, and drop a donation in the donation box as we move forward.

Hope Sachwald, President
Temple Shalom

ONEG NEWS

Let's keep the tradition of Onegs going every Friday night!
There are plenty of dates to choose from-Plan ahead!

July 11, July 25 and all of August except the 8th. October 3, 10, 17, 31, all of November, and December 5, 12, 26. If you pick a date for a special occasion, let me know. (Yahrzeit, anniversary, birthday, etc).

Remember if you are providing an Oneg, you get the honor of lighting the Shabbat candles. If you aren't sure how, ask any of the regular Friday attendees.

If you are homebound and would like to sponsor an Oneg, contact me.

You can ask me how to do this if you are unsure

GUEST COLUMN FROM RABBI DAVID WEISSMAN

This year, Father's Day falls on Sunday, June 15th.

Respect for parents is a very important Jewish value. The Fifth of the Ten Commandments states, Honor your father and your mother. If you do, you will live long on the land that Adonai is giving you. So according to the Fifth Commandment, a long life is the reward for honoring one's parents.

It is also interesting to note the tradition requires that we mourn when any one of our following relatives passes away: a parent, a spouse, a sibling and a child. But the mourning period for all of these relatives ends at the conclusion of thirty days - the shloshim period – except for a parent. For a parent, the mourning period is one year and the tradition requires a child to recite Kaddish for a deceased parent for eleven months.

In biblical and liturgical Hebrew, the word for a father is AV. Abraham was the first of the Patriarchs. In Hebrew, Abraham's name is AV-RA-HAM, which means FATHER OF A GREAT NATION.

We are all familiar with the A-VEE-NU MAL-KEI-NU prayer recited on the High Holidays. A-VEE-NU means OUR FATHER and MAL-KEI-U means KING. So, metaphorically, God is referred to as OUR FATHER, OUR KING. And in the prayer, we ask Adonai, OUR FATHER, OUR KING, to bestow all kinds of blessings upon us.

In biblical times, someone was considered Jewish if his/her father was Jewish. This is known as patrilineal descent. But with the various persecution of Jews, there were Jewish women who were raped by non-Jewish persecutors and the question arose as to the status of the children born as a result of rape. It was considered humane to consider these children to be Jewish because the mother was Jewish even though the father – the rapist – wasn't Jewish. So the tradition adopted the practice of matrilineal descent. A child was considered Jewish if his/her mother was Jewish and a child born of a non-Jewish mother and a Jewish father was not considered Jewish. And this is the rule followed today by both the Orthodox and Conservative movement today. However, whether someone is considered a KOHEIN, a LEVI or an ISRAELITE is still determined by the father's status, not the mother's.

But, with the large number of intermarriages, Reform takes a more liberal view. In Reform practice, if either the mother (matrilineal descent) or the father (patrilineal descent) is Jewish and the child considers him/herself to be Jewish, then the child is Jewish.

Throughout most of Jewish history, it was the father, not the mother, who was the dominant family figure. Today, we live in a more egalitarian society and I am proposing that we eliminate separate Mother's Day and Father's Day celebrations and replace them with a single Parent's Day. But in the meantime, to whomever it applies, I wish you a very happy Father's Day.

If you would like to participate in the mitzvah of leading the English or delivering a sermon at a Friday evening service, please contact TempleShalomMBPresident@gmail.com. If you are unable to stand to do the service, accommodations will be made.

Thank You Notes

Thank you to Lily Ann Revitch for representing Temple Shalom at the Yom Hashoah program.
 Thank you to Chabad for hosting and to everyone who attended.
 Thank you to Bill Stanton for taking care of the problem with the security system. It has been fixed.

SAVE THE DATE

Our Shavuot service and POTLUCK DAIRY KIDDUSH begins at 10:30 on Monday, June 2. Shavuot celebrates the giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai and is one of the pilgrimage festivals. "Many Jews prepare and eat dairy foods – often cheesecake or blintzes – on Shavuot as a reminder of the sweetness of Torah, and also as a reminder that the Torah calls the land of Israel a land “flowing with milk and honey” (Exodus 3:8). Please note: You may attend the service without participating in the Kiddush.

Friday, June 6 -- Rabbi Aaron Sherman will be visiting to co-lead a service with Cookie Brenner. Rabbi Sherman is a candidate for our part-time position. Please plan to attend this service either in-person or on Zoom.

Chair Yoga -- Join us for 3 Mondays in June - 9, 16, and 23 at 10 AM as Jamie Stanton leads us in chair yoga. (see flyers for registration and details).

Wednesday, June 18 is our annual meeting. Members, please join us at 6 PM for a complimentary Pizza and Salad Dinner followed by the Meeting and Elections at 6:45 PM. Ballots have been e-mailed; if you cannot attend in-person, please vote and either Mail your ballot(s) to Temple Shalom, 4023 Belle Terre Blvd., Myrtle Beach, SC 29579 OR email your ballot(s) to Michelle Foels at templeshalomtreasurer@gmail.com. Votes must be received by June 18, 2025 (prior to the start of the annual meeting) to be counted. A quorum (30% of members in good standing) is necessary to hold an election. If you are planning to have supper with us, you must register ahead of time. Please reserve your supper spot no later than June 9, 2025. Email Cookie Brenner at ebrenner1@gmail.com.

Friday, June 20 – Temple Shalom is celebrating our 20th anniversary. Services will begin at 6 P.M. followed by a special Oneg. Our founder, Lily Ann, will be hosting this event. Please RSVP to Hope by June 11.

NAACP Myrtle Beach Branch #5568 and Temple Shalom invite members and the community to join us in reading the books Uncomfortable Conversations with a Black Man by Emmanuel Acho and Uncomfortable Conversations with a Jew by Emmanuel Acho and Noa Tishby. The round table discussion will be on Saturday, June 21 at 3 PM at Fresh Brewed Coffee House, 933 Broadway St, Myrtle Beach.

Thursday, June 26 – Mah Jongg Marathon

There are no services July 4th weekend.

Our next Book Club meeting is at 2:00 on Tuesday, July 29 at the Temple. We are reading The Girls of the Glimmer Factory by Jennifer Coburn.

Chair Yoga is Coming!

June 9, 16 & 23 at Temple Shalom

10:00 – 11:00 am

All members are welcome.

Also available on Zoom

Join Jamie for three Mondays in June for our first OmShalom Chair Yoga series.

Through mostly seated poses and gentle exercises, chair yoga has been shown to improve posture, flexibility, strength, balance and mental well-being, while also being accessible for those with limited mobility. It can help reduce pain, enhance breathing and improve sleep quality, making it a valuable form of exercise.

While the physical benefits are many, yoga with chair support also offers an opportunity for our mind, body and soul to come into stillness and experience unity with each other, with ourselves and the Divine.

More specific information regarding this series is included on the following sign up form.
