TEMPLE
SHALOM
A Reform Congregation

Volume 19 Issue 2

A Letter from the President August 2025

We are about 7 weeks away from the beginning of the High Holy Day season. Temple Shalom has started to prepare. Rabbi Aaron has met with the Ritual Committee to review the service. Our lay leaders are learning the holiday tropes. The lulav and estrog have been ordered and are scheduled to arrive at the end of Yom Kippur. We have made plans to repair and relocate our sukkah. We are planning dinners, lunches, onegs, kiddushim, and a bake sale fund raiser. Members – in the upcoming weeks, you will be receiving emails asking you to volunteer to participate in the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services. There are English reading parts available in the two Rosh Hashanah and all three Yom Kippur services. We will start our celebrations with Selichot and end with Simchat Torah/ Shemini Atzeret. If you like to cook/bake for the holidays or if you just enjoy eating holiday food, September and October will be great months at Temple Shalom. If you are not a member, our policy for non-members wishing to attend High Holiday services has remained the same as last year. For non-members (unaffiliated with a URJ congregation), there is a $175 admission fee per person for all five HH services. This fee, per person, may be applied toward 2025-2026 membership dues if you join by October 15, 2025. If attending services for the High Holy days is important to you, please consider becoming a member. In order to continue as the only Reform Jewish congregation in the Myrtle Beach area, Temple Shalom needs your support through membership.

I have written and stated this at least once a year over the last four years: Belonging to and having a place to belong to is important, especially in the face of rising antisemitism. You have the power to ensure that we continue to have a Jewish community here in the Grand Strand by maintaining your membership or becoming a member of Temple Shalom. Our strength comes from our members who accept the responsibility of supporting a synagogue, attending services and functions, and volunteering.

Looking forward to celebrating the holidays with my Temple Shalom family,

Hope Sachwald, President
Temple Shalom

Hello from our rabbi

I am so delighted that you have asked me to serve as your rabbi. I am happy that I have met so many of you during my first month of visits to Temple Shalom. Attendance at Shabbat Evening and Morning services has been wonderful. I look forward to getting to know you better. Thank you for opening your houses up to me and welcoming me so warmly to the congregation.

Here is a little bit of my personal history. I was born like so many of you in the Northeast, in my case, Hartford, Connecticut. When I was six years old my family moved to Tulsa, OK where I grew up and stayed through high school. Tulsa has a small but active Jewish community. My closest relatives were over one thousand miles away, so the Temple community served as my extended family. I spent parts of the summers attending Greene Family Camp in Texas, the URJ (Union for Reform Judaism) camp for my region of the country. My class trip following Confirmation was to Israel where we spent 6 weeks traveling through the entire country and working on a Kibbutz. This was the first of many trips that I have made to Israel.

I attended and graduated from Brown University in Providence, RI. I then began my rabbinical studies at the Hebrew Union College, which I will describe in an upcoming bulletin article.

I look forward to spending 2 Shabbatot at Temple Shalom each month. I will drive from Charleston to the Grand Strand on Friday afternoons. I look forward to eating Shabbat dinners at your homes or at local restaurants if you are not able to prepare dinner at home. I will lead Shabbat Evening and Shabbat Morning services. After Shabbat Morning Services and our Kiddush, I am available to have lunch with different members of the temple. Then I will spend most Saturday afternoons visiting you in your homes. If you want to meet with me, please reach out to me, so we can schedule time for a Saturday afternoon that I am in town. My cell phone number is (843) 718-5111 and my email address is rabbi.sherman@gmail.com

We can also set up times to speak during the week over the phone or through the computer.

During the week when I am in Charleston, I serve as the chaplain at Jewish Family Services of greater Charleston. I spend much of my time visiting seniors in adult living communities or their homes. I visit with people in the hospitals and rehab centers in addition to officiating at life cycle events for people who are unaffiliated to one of the local synagogues. I facilitate a Jewish Grief Support Group that meets once a month.

Rabbi Aaron Sherman

ONEG NEWS

Thanks to so many of you, we have had Onegs every Friday night after services this year. We still have a bunch of dates in 2025 to fill.

Sponsored onegs will be assigned when the need exists.

Plan ahead!

Oct 3, 10, 17, 31

All of November

December 5, 26

If you pick a date for a special occasion, let me know. (Yahrzeit, anniversary, birthday, etc).

Remember if you are providing an Oneg, you get the honor of lighting the Shabbat candles. If you aren't sure how, ask Rabbi Aaron or any of the regular Friday attendees.

If you are homebound and would like to sponsor an Oneg, contact me.

You can ask me how to do this if you are unsure

Om Shalom Chair Yoga

returns for 3 Mondays:

August 4, 11, & 18

Join Jamie from 10:00 – 11:00 am
at Temple Shalom

Also available on Zoom

All are welcome.

Through mostly seated poses and gentle exercises, chair yoga has been shown to improve posture, flexibility, strength, balance and mental well-being, while also being accessible for those with limited mobility. It can help reduce pain, enhance breathing and improve sleep quality, making it a valuable form of exercise.

While the physical benefits are many, yoga with chair support also offers an opportunity for our mind, body and soul to come into stillness and experience unity with each other, with ourselves and the Divine.

More specific information regarding this series is included on the following sign up form.
